

The Festival of Quilts and flowers (22-24 June) was a great success, attracting hundreds of visitors to see more than 60 handmade quilts and floral arrangements. The event raised over £2000 towards Community Centre building costs.

Mike Shannon photographed all the individual exhibits in the church and centre, and you can view his photos on this Flickr page