

The centre was designed by architect Ralph Ball RIBA, to harmonize with its surroundings (including

The main section is a two-storey building with several meeting rooms, and access both from the High S

The large open entrance area serves as an informal meeting place with cafe-style seating and an adjac